

2014 Arctic Innovation Competition

Junior Winners

Ages 13-17

1st Place
$500

Cameron Hartman & Dylan Story

Ice Pack Band Aid

Ideal for sports, this idea is a product that has two ways of helping to treat injuries - a bandage and an ice pack.

2nd Place
$300

Adam Ripley

Protex Tear-Detecting Latex Technology

This product is a tear-detecting latex technology known as Protex that can be applied to condoms and latex medical gloves.

3rd Place
$200

Liam Chambers, Jaidyn Crane, Alan DeWilde & Alyssa Imbach

Build a Better Bus

This product redesigns the interior of current school buses by replacing the large, overpowered heaters with smaller, lighter, and more compact heaters placed above windows at frequent intervals.

Honorable Mentions $25

Caleb Gorda
Ella Kuhn
Aaron Partnow

Conveyor Shoe
Berry Leaf Strainer
Voyager

Meet the Cub Division winners

Cub Winners

Ages 12 and under

1st Place
$500

Lewis Enterkin

Wood Stove Temperature Alarm

This idea uses a bi-metallic spring to open and close a circuit, which activates an alarm when a woodstove gets too hot.

2nd Place
$300

Maggie Druckenmiller

MagButtons

This idea, magnetic buttons, is for the elderly and people who have trouble buttoning up their shirts, dresses, jackets, etc.

3rd Place
$200

Amanda Elliott

Anti-Graffiti App

This is an Anti-Graffiti App that can be downloaded onto an iPhone or iPad, which will allow someone to report graffiti in urban areas more effectively.

Honorable Mentions $25

Riga Grubis

Kayla Tyree

Molly Wilson

Kieran Wright

Inversion Clock

Dog Booties with Suspender System

Doggie Doorbell

Book Locating System

UAF photos by JR Ancheta.

UAF is an Affirmative Action/Equal Opportunity employer and educational institution.